Since 1980, gospel music fans world-wide have been in love with the trend-setting style of Gold City. From their inception, this quartet's goal has been to use the musical gifts the Lord has given them the best way they know how to honor God, witness to the lost, and encourage the saved.

With 10 number one songs, multiple radio hits, and numerous industry accolades, this Dove Award-winning quartet has achieved legendary status as they have remained atop the gospel charts consistently in each of the past four decades. They have won over 60 Singing News Fan Awards as a group and among the individual group members. Historically, they've introduced some of the most important songs in all of gospel music to audiences everywhere, including "Midnight Cry," "Under Control," "I'm Not Giving Up," "It's Still The Cross," and "In My Robe of White." They had the number one radio chart single for the year 2019 as noted by Singing News Magazine, "All My Hope." In 2017, the crowning achievement of being named to the Gospel Music Hall of Fame forever solidifies what thousands of loyal gospel music followers already know—Gold City will forever be the standard of excellence for gospel quartet music.

The current Gold City consists of Chris Jenkins (tenor), Bruce Taliaferro (lead), Danny Riley (baritone), and a bass singer TBA.

Comprised of seasoned vocalists Kasey Kemp, Haley Kemp & Jonathan Mattingly, Avenue has quickly made a name within the Gospel music community for their exceptional harmony and powerful messages of encouragement and hope. The ministry focus is endorsed by the choice of name for this entity. Avenue displays the mission that their music is the avenue by which they proclaim the greatest message there is - the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
